DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed September 3, 2004 (herein after referred to as "the response") has been entered. Claims 1, 3, and 5 have been amended.

Accordingly, Claims 1-5 remain pending in the instant application.

The rejection of Claims 1-5 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application No. 2001/0007153 A1 (filed June 16, 1997; Brown et al.) is withdrawn in view of the amendments to the claims and Applicants arguments pertaining thereto at pages 9-10 of the response.

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: the claims now recite a mammal that has a "normal immune system." The specification does not use this terminology, but rather uses the terminology referred to below in the "new matter" rejection. MPEP § 608.01(o) states that "[t]he use of a confusing variety of terms for the same thing should not be permitted."

Applicants have not addressed this objection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

New Matter

Art Unit: 1632

Claims 1-5 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, for reasons of record advanced on pages 4-5 of the Office Action mailed 6/1/04, and for further reasons as discussed herein, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

At pages 4-5 of the response, Applicants assert that the specification supports mammals having a "normal immune system" because the specification refers to immunocompetent host animals and an immune system which is intact. The Examiner has already acknowledged at pages 4-5 of the Office Action mailed 6/1/04 that the specification refers to similar, though not identical, subject matter. However, the present claims do not use the claim language to which Applicants refer, but rather use claim language that is not supported by the as-filed specification. Applicants have not pointed to support in the as-filed specification for the new claim language referring to a "normal immune system."

Thus, the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, is maintained.

Conclusion

No claims are allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
